Ayodeji Ezra-Williams is the visionary founder of The Regeneration, an initiative dedicated to fostering conversations about a New Heaven and a New Earth. With a heart for apostolic education, The Regeneration aims to support the transition, development, and growth of the ekklesia across nations. Ayodeji is the convener of the City Apostolic Council, a quarterly gathering of elders of the Ecclesia in Lagos, Nigeria. This council embodies the vision of a unified Body of Christ, celebrating as one church within the city. As the director of the Technite Institute of Kingdom Leadership, Ayodeji is passionate about guiding Christians, fellowships, and churches through transformative journeys—from religion to the kingdom, from church to ekklesia, and from membership to kingdom citizenship. He also oversees Chloe's Household ekklesia in Lagos, Nigeria.

The Regenesi is connected to Kingdom Communities and Ekklesia in Lagos, Ibadan, Ijebu Ode, Benin, Abuja, Port Harcourt. United Kingdom, South Africa, USA and Canada.

Ayodeji Ezra-Williams is called to be an apostolic missionary to the Body of Christ. He coordinates Regenesi Global, a global kingdom discipleship platform committed to teaching and preaching the Gospel of the Kingdom and the restoration of all things. With over three decades of experience in Church Development, Ayodeji's journey began in the 80s with the Word of Faith Movement. He served alongside Rev Tunde Joda of the Voice of Faith Ministries and later became the pioneer Evangelist for Christ Chapel Int'l Churches in Port Harcourt.

With the beginning of the Apostolic and Prophetic move in the 90s, Ayodeji connected with Rev. Tunde Bakare of Global Apostolic Impact Network and the Congress-WBN led by Noel Woodroffe, where he served on the Nigeria Kingdom Community Network Executive Council led by Paul Ogedengbe, the West Africa Coordinator. He was also the pioneer Principal and Faculty member of the WBN - Breakthrough School of Ministry for five years.

The post church nature of our ministry and the current reformation shift, couple with constant travels for kingdom assignments means that We look to the Lord for his provision through believers who are passionate about the expansion of the Kingdom of God.

He is the author of the books titled "The Desolating Sacrilege" 2001 and "The Judgment to come" 2005. He is married to Ranti and resides with his family in Lagos Nigeria.
